1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The reasons for allowance of the claims is that none of the prior art disclose or suggest (A) a method of selecting cells resistant to selective agent by inducing directed evolution while applying a selective agent to the cells to determine cells having resistance; (B) a method of generating mutant drug targets by inducing directed evolution while applying a selective agent to the cells, thereby determining potential drug targets; (C ) a method of determining emerging resistance by inducing directed evolution while applying a selective agent to cells, thereby selecting those microorganisms having emerging resistance; nor (D) a method of selecting cells resistant to selective agent by inducing directed evolution while applying a mutagen to the cells to determine those cells having resistance as claimed in the present invention.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
